THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN at Harvard Medical School/Harvard School of Dental Medicine

ARTICLE I – NAME
The Joint Committee on the Status of Women is a Standing Committee of the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine at Harvard University.

ARTICLE II – STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Section 1
To facilitate the recognition and encourage the development and contributions of all women affiliated with Harvard Medical School and Harvard School of Dental Medicine by expanding and improving opportunities for leadership development and advancement and for achieving their full potential.

Section 2
To identify and prioritize initiatives and opportunities for the advancement of women, and help to remove impediments to their advancement.

Section 3
To educate members of the biomedical community as to issues and practices that influence the advancement of women, through measures such as the following:

A. Creating a forum to bring relevant issues to the community;

B. Providing a resource for women by cultivating programs for networking, mentoring, training, and referral throughout the medical school community and the community at large;

C. Collaborating with other Harvard women’s groups in discussing ways to share resources to support efforts towards increasing gender and ethnic/racial diversity and in support of relevant educational programs.

Section 4
To appraise, monitor, and document the status of women by such measures as:

A. Assessing the general culture and climate as it relates to women; hiring and promotion practices; salary and professional equity; training; employment practices such as child care provisions, health services, parental leave, family sick leave, and flexible-time working arrangements and other topics as recommended by the Dean or as deemed relevant by the Committee;
HMS/HSDM Joint Committee on the Status of Women Bylaws

B. Using tools such as surveys, as well as other forms of data collection;
C. Maintaining, disseminating, and publishing findings related to issues of relevance to women affiliated with the Faculty of Medicine.

Section 5
To make recommendations and inform policy decisions related to the status of women through:

A. Reporting the Committee’s findings and recommending policies to the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, the Faculty Council, the Joint Council, and any other appropriate leadership bodies;
B. Reviewing and responding to reports from the Deans’ offices and other responsible offices on issues relevant to its function, and if requested, contribute efforts and data to such reports;
C. Developing and coordinating award programs, such as the Dean’s Awards for Leadership in the Advancement of Women Faculty & Staff.

The JCSW will coordinate the nomination process and recommend nominees for the Dean’s Awards for Leadership in the Advancement of Women Faculty and Staff. Nominations will be solicited by the JCSW from all faculty, regardless of rank, and all Harvard employed staff with the aim of identifying individuals who have made notable career contributions to the advancement of women faculty and staff, and whose efforts have extended broadly within Harvard Medical School and potentially, nationally. The outgoing Faculty and Staff Task force Chairs will oversee the selection process. If either outgoing chair is unable to fulfill that role, a designate will be named by the Steering Committee.

Section 6
To contribute to, and foster the creation of a culture that is supportive to women by:

A. Encouraging and fostering networking and collaboration among women and groups whose mission it is to support women;
B. Sharing best practices and creating an environment that leverages groups’ knowledge for the benefit of women at Harvard;
C. Helping to advance the goals for diversity and equity as set forth by the Deans of Harvard Medical School, Harvard School of Dental Medicine and other Harvard institutions.
